

Saturday, April 18, 2009

4th Annual Piedmont Earth Day Fair

Mainstage Entertainment

LOCAL AREA TALENT

RANDY FULK

ONE STRING OVER

THE FAMILY EVERSOLE

THE WAYFARERS

JERRY CHAPMAN

UNBROKEN CIRCLE

Come out and enjoy some great musical acts from local area talent featured throughout the day!

PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE

10:00 A.M. | OPENING CEREMONY

FLOWER EAGLE MEDICINE LODGE

Native Drumming Processional and Calling in the Directions

PERFECT OCTAVE, an East Surry High acapella group
The National Anthem

THE HONORABLE ALLEN JOINES, Mayor of Winston-Salem
Opening Remarks

JIM ALTY, Associate Vice President, Wake Forest University
Welcoming Remarks

10:35 A.M. | HANNAH LEWIS, acoustic folk with some bluegrass and blues thrown in for good measure

11:10 A.M. | RANDY FULK, singer/songwriter performing contemporary folk

12:00 P.M. | ONE STRING OVER, a Triad-based acoustic band

12:50 P.M. | THE FAMILY EVERSOLE, nationally recognized band offering a unique eclectic bluegrass sound

1:55 P.M. | SWEET SAINT CAROLINE, a folk band performing southern folk

2:30 P.M. | THE WAYFARERS, multi-instrumentalists and vocalists made up of WFU students

3:05 P.M. | JERRY CHAPMAN, well-known local solo acoustical artist

4:10 P.M. | UNBROKEN CIRCLE, playing standards and original Old Time arrangements

Free Admission

Rain or Shine This is an outdoor event, but we will move inside to Benson University Center in the event of severe weather.

For additional information, please visit www.peaNC.org/earth-day-fair